

Primary Science Fair

Desmond College Science Department are currently working with a number of Primary Schools in West Limerick providing assistance and guidance in putting together a Science Fair Project. Below are pictures of the sixth class students in Shanagolden National School who are comparing the Vitamin C of food before and after cooking.

The Sixth Class students in Shanagolden National School along with Ms Culhane and Ms Corkery Desmond College

Some of the students in Shanagolden National School discussing their science fair investigation