

'From hatchet throwing to hunger strikes: how 'dastardly' suffragettes won Irish women the vote
It is 100 years since Irish women won the right to vote

Are you interested in hearing how?

To celebrate the 100th anniversary of the vote for Irish women on International Women's Day, LCETB present a free talk on

- Women's suffrage in Ireland
- Clare women involved
- Militancy – violent actions of suffragettes
- Nationalism V Suffragism
- The legacy of the suffragettes
- Voting for all now
- Real news v fake news: then and now

Venue: LCETB FET Centre, Clonroad Ennis.

When: 10.30 am Thursday Mar 8

Speaker: Colette O'Brien